You have rights regardless of your immigration status

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS: Protect Yourself and Your Family

As shifts in U.S. immigration policy take place, INFORMATION IS POWER! Do not wait—learn and prepare to ensure you and your family understand your rights and the legal protections available to you.

Your Rights in the U.S. – Regardless of Immigration Status:

- Equal Protection: You are entitled to fair treatment under the law and cannot be discriminated against based on immigration status.
- Due Process: You have the right to fair legal proceedings.
- Right to Remain Silent: You do not have to answer questions from immigration officials.
- Right to Privacy: Immigration officials cannot search your home or belongings without a valid warrant.

How to use a Know Your Rights Card

A "Know Your Rights" card is an essential tool for immigrants without legal status. Here's how it can protect you:

- Stay Silent: Hand the card to ICE officers to assert your right to remain silent.
- Request Legal Help: The card makes it clear you are asking for legal representation.
- Stay Calm: By using the card, you avoid saying anything that could be used against you.
- Carrying this card can help you stay prepared and ensure your rights are respected in a stressful situation.

I AM EXERCISING MY RIGHT TO REMAIN SILENT.

Please be informed that I am choosing to exercise my right to remain silent. I am also exercising my right to refuse to sign anything until my attorney reviews it. If I am detained, I request to contact my attorney immediately. My attorney's contact information is:

Name _____

Phone _____

I know that...

- 1 I have rights. I have dignity. I am not alone.
- 2 I have the right to speak to my attorney.
- 3 I have the right to refuse to sign anything before my attorney reviews it.
- 4 Anything I say can be used against me.
- 5 I have the right to remain silent in ANY situation.
- 6 I can show officials this card or say out loud that I am remaining silent.

Immigration Customs Enforcement (ICE)

What is ICE?

ICE is a federal law enforcement agency under the U.S. Department of Homeland Security (DHS). Its mission is to enforce immigration laws, protect national security, and investigate illegal activities related to immigration, trade, and customs.

What Does ICE Do?

- Enforces Immigration Laws:
 - Identify, arrests, and removes individuals who violate U.S. immigration laws.
- Manages Detention Centers:
 - Oversees facilities where immigrants may be held before deportation or legal proceedings.
- Conducts Enforcement Actions:
 - Performs workplace raids and other actions to enforce immigration laws.

Key Points for Immigrants:

- Understand your rights during encounters with ICE.
- Be prepared with safety plans in case of detention.
- Seek legal advice if you are at risk of enforcement actions.

For more information visit the ICE portal website where you can:

- Update Your Address
- Schedule or Change an ICE Appointment

Who Might Be at Risk Under New Immigration Policies?

Under the new administration, immigration policies may prioritize enforcement against anyone without legal status, even those with no criminal record. This puts many immigrants at higher risk of deportation.

The Groups Potentially at Risk:

- People Without Lawful Immigration Status:
 - Those who overstayed a visa.
 - Individuals who entered the U.S. by crossing a border or arriving by boat.
- People With Lawful Immigration Status Who Have Certain Criminal Convictions:
 - Green card holders.
 - Asylees.
 - Holders of valid visas (student, work, etc.).
 - TPS recipients, U/T visa holders, DACA beneficiaries, and those on parole.
- People Present in the U.S. After Being Ordered Removed:
 - Individuals with a final removal or deportation order.

What Can You Do?

- Schedule a legal consultation with an immigration attorney to find out if you qualify for an immigration benefit or relief.
- Scan the QR code below to search for a qualified immigration attorney at a non-profit organization or visit:
<https://www.immigrationadvocates.org/legaldirectory>.

How can I avoid immigration fraud?

Seek immigration legal advice only from a licensed attorney or a DOJ-accredited representative. Verify recognized providers at www.justice.gov/eoir. Be cautious of fraudulent services and false promises.

Watch Out for False Promises:

- Quick or easy green card or employment authorization card offers.
- Immediate work permit or visa guarantees.
- Claims of no risks or consequences.
- Special influence with immigration authorities.

What Not to Do:

- Don't pay for government application forms—they are free at www.uscis.gov/forms.
- Don't give original documents—provide copies instead.
- Don't sign incomplete or blank forms.
- Don't sign anything you don't fully understand or has been translated.

What to Do:

- Ask questions, even if the provider is recommended by someone you trust.
- Ask for proof of a licensed or accredited recognition from your provider.
- Choose providers with a physical location/office.
- Get a written, signed service agreement and keep a copy.
- Request copies of all prepared and signed documents.
- Request a detailed receipt with the provider's name and address.

Prepare for increase in ICE enforcement efforts

- Know Your Rights:
 - Learn Your Rights. Knowledge is power.
 - You have the right to remain silent, refuse entry to your home without a judicial search warrant, and to request an attorney if detained.
- Carry a "Know Your Rights" Card:
 - Keep a KYR card and the contact information of a trusted attorney readily available.
 - Do not carry false documents or documents from your home country.
- Create a Safety Plan:
 - Plan with Family:
 - Decide who will care for children and handle finances if someone is detained.
 - Store Documents Securely:
 - Keep passports, birth certificates, and other critical documents in a safe, accessible location.
- Seek Legal Advice:
 - Consult an Immigration Attorney.
 - Explore options to adjust your status or apply for immigration protections.
 - For Nonprofit Organizations:
 - www.immigrationlawhelp.org
 - www.justice.gov/eoir/list-pro-bono-legal-service-providers-map
 - If nonprofit organizations are not able to help you, asked them to provide a list of trusted immigration attorneys in your area.
- Build Your Community:
 - Join faith-based or community organizations for support, resources, and a sense of belonging.
- Track Your Case Status:
 - Check Your USCIS Case Status:
 - Visit <https://egov.uscis.gov/> Enter your Receipt Number (from your immigration forms) or
 - Use your USCIS online account if you have one. To open a USCIS account visit: <https://www.uscis.gov/file-online/how-to-create-a-uscis-online-account>.
 - Check Your EOIR (Immigration Court) Case Status:
 - Call 1-800-898-7180 or visit <https://acis.eoir.justice.gov/en/>.
 - Enter your Alien Registration Number (A#).
- Know Your Alien Registration Number (A#):
 - If you have an A#, keep it accessible—it's crucial for tracking your case.

Being prepared can help protect you and your family if you are at risk for deportation. Take these important steps.

Expedited Removal: What You Need To Know

What is Expedited Removal?

- Expedited removal allows ICE or CBP to deport certain undocumented individuals without seeing an immigration judge. The only exception is if the person expresses fear of returning to their home country and passes a screening interview, which may allow them to seek asylum.

What Has Changed in 2025?

Expedited Removal can be used anywhere in the U.S. against any:

- Individuals apprehended anywhere in the United States, who have been continuously present in the United States for less than 2 years.
- Individuals apprehended within 100 air miles of a U.S. land border who have been continuously present in the United States for at least 14 days but for less than 2 years.
- Individuals who are in removal proceedings, and/or have active parole status, and are eligible for expedited removal, for whom agents exercise their enforcement discretion to apply expedited removal by seeking dismissal of removal proceedings and/or termination of parole status.

How Can You Prepare?

- Know Your Rights – You have the right to remain silent, not open your door, and not answer questions from ICE or CBP.
- Carry Proof of U.S. Presence – Keep copies of documents like mail with postmarks, leases, or school records showing you have lived in the U.S. for over two years.
- Avoid Carrying Foreign IDs – Do not carry a foreign passport or other foreign documents, as they could be used against you.
- Keep Proof of Status – If you have lawful status or a pending asylum case, carry copies of relevant documents.
- Express Your Fear of Return if detained by ICE – If you are detained, state loudly and clearly your fear of returning to your country.
- Ask for a Lawyer – Do not sign any documents without first speaking to an immigration lawyer.

What to do if ICE comes to your home

- Stay Calm and Do Not Open the Door
 - ICE can only enter with your permission, or a judicial warrant signed by a judge.
 - Ask ICE to show their ID and warrant through a window or slip it under the door.
 - ICE warrants alone do not allow entry.
 - Say: "I do not give you permission to come inside. Please leave."
- If ICE Enters Your Home
 - Stay Silent: You are not required to answer questions about your immigration status.
 - Use a KYR Card: Hand officers your Know Your Rights card to assert your rights.
 - Request a Lawyer: Do not sign anything or answer questions without legal advice.
 - When safe, document your encounter with ICE:
 - Officer names and badge numbers.
 - What happened.
 - Get witness contact details.

What to Do if Stopped by ICE in a Public Area

- Stay Calm, Do Not Run or Resist
 - Do not flee if approached by ICE or police officers.
- Ask If You Are Free to Leave
 - Say: "Am I free to go?"
 - If the answer is yes, walk away calmly.
 - If they say no, ask: "Am I under arrest?"
- Exercise Your Right to Remain Silent
 - Use your Know Your Rights (KYR) card to assert your right to remain silent.
 - You may need to state your name depending on state laws, but:
- Do not reveal your immigration status or birthplace.
- Do not carry or show false documents or foreign ID.
- Do not lie to law enforcement.
- Do Not Sign Any Papers
- If searched, say: "I DO NOT CONSENT TO THIS SEARCH."
- If detained, request a lawyer
 - You have the right to speak to a lawyer if detained.

If stopped in a public area, learn more by scanning the QR code, visiting We Have Rights, or visit <https://www.wehaverights.us/> or click on the video below.

What to do if you are stopped by ICE in your car.

- When Stopped:
 - Safely pull over and turn off your vehicle.
 - Place your hands on the steering wheel where officers can see them.
- Communicate Calmly:
 - Ask: "Why was I stopped?"
 - If you are the driver, provide your license, registration, and proof of insurance if available. Do not provide false documents or lie.
- Exercise Your Rights:
 - Right to Remain Silent:
 - Clearly state: "I choose to remain silent," or hand over your Know Your Rights (KYR) card.
 - Do not show documents from your home country.
- Car Searches:
 - If officers try to search your car, say: "I do not consent to this search."
 - In certain situations, officers can search without consent if they have probable cause.
- Passenger Rights:
 - Passengers have the right to remain silent.
 - You can refuse to provide identification by saying: "I do not consent to giving my documents."

If stopped in a public area, understand your rights by scanning the QR code or visiting this video: Know Your Rights Video. Key information starts at the 10-minute mark.

You can also visit <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UmHOpMjll5k&t=605s> to watch the video.

IN YOUR CAR:

- Different laws apply when you are in your car
- If you are the driver, provide your license, registration, proof of insurance
- Do not lie or provide false documents
- If officers search your car, say "I DO NOT CONSENT TO A SEARCH."
- You have the right to remain silent

What to do if ICE enters your workplace?

- Stay Calm & Do Not Run
- ICE Entry Requirements:
 - ICE needs a judicial search warrant or consent from the employer to enter private areas of a business.
 - Designate someone to request and review the judicial search warrant.
 - Take a picture of the judicial search warrant to ensure it is valid.
- Emergency Safety Plan:
 - Educate and work with your employer to evaluate if there are ways to make private areas in your workplace. For example, add signs that say, "employees only."
 - Create an emergency plan with co-workers to prepare for potential raids.
 - Ensure everyone knows their rights and carries a Know Your Rights (KYR) card.
 - If questioned by ICE, staff should inform the agents that they are not authorized to answer questions without consulting with a supervisor.
- Your Rights and Responsibilities:
 - Do Not Carry False Documents or documents from your home country.
 - Staff should not hide or conceal any person, or aid in their escape from the premises. Law enforcement may consider such actions as harboring or obstruction.
- Do Not Sign Anything: ICE may pressure you to sign a voluntary departure order. Request legal representation before signing anything.
- Exercise Your Right to Remain Silent:
 - Show your KYR card to inform ICE you are remaining silent.
 - Do not disclose information about your immigration status, birthplace, or date of entry into the U.S.
 - You are not required to help ICE identify co-workers.
- Keep Key Phone Numbers Accessible:
 - Have contact numbers for your attorney, family, or consulate ready.
- If You Are Searched or Detained:
 - State: "I do not consent to this search."
- Stay calm, do not resist, and ask to contact your attorney, family, or consulate.

How to safely document an ICE encounter or a raid?

- Legal Ways to Document an ICE Arrest:
 - Record videos and take photos: Capture important moments as evidence.
 - Take Notes: Write down details immediately after the incident.
 - Gather Witness Information: Collect contact details from witnesses.
- Save Communications: Keep text messages, emails, and voicemails from ICE.
 - Recording Tips: Record only if it is safe to do so. If not, take notes when safe.
- Legal Right to Record: It is legal to record as long as you do not interfere.
 - Notify the Detainee: Inform the person being detained that you are recording; stop if they request it.
 - Focus on Key Details: Capture law enforcement badges, uniforms, vehicles, license plates, weapons, agent conversations, and any property damage or surveillance tools.
 - Verify Locations: Include landmarks, street signs, and buildings in recordings for reference.
- Protect Your Device:
 - ICE agents cannot legally seize your phone without a warrant.
 - If challenged, say, "I do not consent to you taking my phone."
 - Secure your phone with a passcode lock instead of fingerprint, face recognition, or patterns.
- Best Practices During Violent Incidents:
 - Remain calm and quiet so the recording clearly captures key events for legal use.
- To watch a video, scan the QR code below or visit <https://www.wehaverights.us/>
- To download and print a flyer, visit CLINIC Legal.

Do you live in a border city?

Border Patrol agents (CBP) can question you within 100 miles of the border. CBP officers are able to racially profile, stop, frisk, detain, interrogate, and arrest anyone without a warrant or reasonable suspicion.

Your Rights:

- Right to Remain Silent:
 - You may refuse to answer questions or request an attorney.
- Detention Rules:
 - Agents need reasonable suspicion based on specific facts to detain you.
 - You can ask why you are being detained.
- Searches:
 - Searches of your belongings require either your consent or probable cause.
 - Probable cause must be supported by evidence, not based solely on race, ethnicity, or silence.

Document Guidelines:

- U.S. citizens do not need to carry proof of citizenship.
- Immigrants over the age of 18 with valid documents must carry and present them if requested.
- Avoid presenting false documents and be aware that declining to show documents may lead to further questioning.

Expedited Removal:

- Can be used anywhere in the U.S. against any undocumented person who did not enter with a visa or parole or cannot prove they have been in the U.S. continuously for two years before the arrest
- If you fear persecution in your home country, inform CBP agents immediately to avoid expedited removal.

How to locate a family member that has been detained by ICE?

Step 1:

- Go to the ICE Online Detainee Locator System website: <https://locator.ice.gov> or use the QR below.

Step 2:

You can search for an individual using their A# and country of birth.

- The A-Number (Alien Registration Number) is a unique 8- or 9-digit number assigned to individuals in immigration proceedings. It can often be found on immigration documents.
- The individual's country of birth must match the information on their official records.
- Then click "Search by A# Number".

Search by A-Number

If you know the detainee's A-Number, ICE recommends you use the A-Number search. The A-Number must be exactly nine digits long. If the A-Number has fewer than nine digits, please add zeros at the beginning. You are also required to select the detainee's correct Country of Birth. (* Required Field)

A-Number: *

Country of Birth: *

Country of Birth is required.

Step 3:

You can also search for an individual using their Biographical information.

- Full name (first and last) exactly as it appears on immigration documents.
- Date of birth (mm/dd/yyyy).
- Click "Search by Biographical Information".
- Note: Ensure all information is accurate and free of spelling errors, as mismatches can cause search failures.

Search by Biographical Information

When searching by name, a detainee's first and last names are required and must be an exact match (e.g., John Doe will not find Jon Doe or John Doe-Smith). When inputting a hyphenated last name into the Online Detainee Locator System, please include hyphen in order for the locator to find the individual (e.g., Doe-Smith). You are also required to select the detainee's Country of Birth. (* Required Field)

First Name: *

Last Name: *

Country of Birth: *

Month: Day: Year:

Step 4:

If you are able to speak with your detained loved one by phone, gather as much information as possible. This will help you locate them, understand their situation, and provide necessary assistance. Here are key questions to ask:

- Do you need medical attention?
- Where are you?
- What is the largest city or town near you?
- What papers have you been given, and what do they say?
 - Find out if they have received any Notice to Appear (NTA) or other official documents.
- Do you have any court dates?
- Have you spoken with an immigration lawyer?
 - If they have, ask for the lawyer's name and contact information.
- Do you know your A-Number?
 - This 8 or 9-digit Alien Registration Number is critical for tracking their case and location.
 - If they don't know it, suggest checking any documents they've received.
- Inform them of their rights:
 - Remind them that they have the right to remain silent and request an attorney if questioned by ICE or other officials.
- Share resources if possible:
 - Provide the phone numbers of legal aid organizations or immigrant advocacy groups that can assist.

How to locate ICE detention Facilities:

- Visit the ICE website and click on the "ICE Detention Facilities" tab.
- Search by State: Select the state where you believe the individual is detained.
- Click "Apply" to view a list of detention facilities in that state.
- Use this tool to find facility addresses, contact information, and other details to help you connect with your loved one.

Family Preparedness Plan

Legal Preparation

- Identify Legal Assistance:
 - Find and confirm an attorney or accredited representative willing to assist during emergencies.
- Get screened to determine eligibility for other immigration statuses.

Registration:

- Register with your local consulate for support services.
- Establish a relationship with religious or community centers.

Family Preparedness Plan

- Emergency Communication: Develop a plan for who to call and in what order if a family member is detained.
- Understand state laws about providing your name to police and make informed decisions with legal advice.

Preparing Essential Documentation:

- Make and securely store copies of essential documents: Immigration papers (work authorizations, petitions, receipt notices), IDs, passports, Social Security cards, and birth/marriage certificates
- Criminal case documentation and attorney contacts
- Family health information, including medications

Child Care Planning

- Designate a Caregiver:
 - Ensure the caregiver has crucial information and discuss signing legal documents like a power of attorney.
- Ensure children born in the U.S. have passports.
- Financial and Property planning
- Savings: Set aside funds for essential needs during detention.
- Consider documents authorizing family members to collect paychecks on your behalf.

Bond Posting:

- Identify a U.S. citizen or permanent resident willing to post bond if needed.
- Be aware bond amounts start at $1,500 but can vary.

Rights Awareness:

- Educate family on their rights and rehearse responses for contact with officers.

Create an Emergency Contact list: With phone numbers of people that can help you if you are detained by ICE.

Document Checklist for Immigrant Families

Immigrant families should prepare and securely store a file containing these critical documents to ensure preparedness in case of detention or deportation. Share the file's location with trusted children, family members, and designated caregivers for emergencies.

- Identity & Family Documents:
 - Passports (including for children).
 - Birth certificates.
 - Marriage licenses/certificates (if applicable).
 - Caregiver authorization forms.
- Immigration & Residency Records:
 - A-number and immigration documents (e.g., work permit, green card, visa, etc.).
 - Proof of residence and physical presence in the U.S.
- Personal Identification & Financial Records:

Know Your Rights: A Guide to Your Rights When Interacting with Law Enforcement

Last Updated: January 27, 2017

Topics: Know Your Rights, Protecting Your Community

YOU HAVE RIGHTS regardless of your immigration status. You may be at risk of being deported if you are undocumented, if you are a non-citizen with a criminal history, if you are on parole or have a prior deportation order. To protect yourself, your family and your community you must KNOW YOUR RIGHTS. Knowledge is power. Act NOW. Do not wait. Be prepared.

This guide contains:

- What you need to know and what to do when encountering immigration agents, the police or FBI in different places
- Information about how to read a warrant
- Twelve things for you and your family to remember in ANY situation
- Your Emergency Planning Checklist
- Your Emergency Contact Information Sheet
- Your plan for what to do if a loved one calls you from an immigration detention center or police station
- Your Workplace Planning Checklist

Custody Options Available if Parent(s) Are Detained or Deported

Non-Court Options

- Caregiver Designation: Parents may appoint a trusted individual to care for their children temporarily. Caution is advised against using unrecognized forms from notaries. They are not recognized by court.
- Philadelphia School District Form: A district-approved form allows caregivers temporary decision-making authority.
- Public Benefits for Children: Caregivers may access benefits like TANF or food stamps without a custody order.
- Medical Authorization: Some healthcare providers accept a signed delegation of authority for medical decisions.

Pros:

- Temporary authority for caregivers without court involvement.
- Serves as evidence of parental intent if custody petitions arise.

Cons:

- Not enforceable by courts and may not be accepted by schools or doctors.
- Caregivers could gain "in loco parentis" status, allowing them to seek custody independently.

A sample guardianship form can be found here.

<https://philalegal.org/sites/default/files/attachments/2024-11/Sample%20Guardianship%20Form.pdf>

Court Options: Formal Custody Agreements

- Formal Custody Agreements: Parents can enter custody agreements with caregivers, requiring notarized signatures unless prepared by an attorney.
- Filing for Custody: Caregivers can file if parents are unavailable, with assistance available at the Family Court Help Center (1501 Arch Street, Philadelphia, PA 19102).
- Pros:
 - Provides legal authority for critical decisions and travel.
- Cons:
 - Grants caregivers "in loco parentis" status, potentially complicating custody disputes.

Important Notes:

Immigration status does not bar parents or caregivers from court access. Custody decisions should remain unaffected by immigration status unless detention or deportation proceedings are underway.
